director's note

Hello everyone and welcome to Spongebob the Musical. This show has been so amazing to bring to life. We have had an amazing time in the studio, practicing these fun, quirky and challenging songs, and learning some amazing dances from our new outstanding choreographer, Mrs. D. This cast has been nothing short of professional, and I can not wait for them to have you as an audience.

This show touches on so many things. Friendships, dreams, self image, and even how we react in fear of losing things we love. What I love about this show is each character's own personal journey, and how they all grow through their own crazy adventures and experiences. I feel that it gives us insight to how the world above works. And how we all go through our own set of challenges, and experiences to become our very best selves. I hope that this show touches your heart, and makes you laugh, because that would greatly represent my experience throughout this whole process.

I want to thank my family for their continued support. The Wong Family, Patterson Family, Brandt Family, Werner Family, and the Guitierrez Family, for going above and beyond to support RTA behind the scenes. Tim the Lighting GENIUS for always coming through for me and my family; you are an absolute gem. My amazing credited staff, from Props to Choreography. Our amazing student assistants, and my beautiful fiance who's love never waivers throughout all the chaos that can come from running a theater company. My mother, who flew across the country to help out during tech week. And you the viewers and families who continue to give RTA the support and love it needs to thrive. I am honored to be apart of this beautiful community, and hope to continue to see it thrive for years to come.

Welcome to the BEST.....SHOW.....EVER ;)

Sincerely,
Coach Trent
